Captain E. T. Layton
Naval Intelligence School
Naval Recruit Training
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Captain Layton:

Reference your memorandum of 3 April, we shall be happy to provide a lecture to talk on the Agency and the National Intelligence Service for the benefit of the Reserve Intelligence Officers attending the indicated course.

Mr. Shane MacCarthy has been designated for this purpose and will present both subjects requested as a part of an overall lecture on Intelligence and World Conditions. He will be prepared to devote two hours on each of the dates requested (23 May and 13 June), to be taken up by his lecture and a question and answer session.

Mr. MacCarthy will contact Commander Hughlett directly to arrange necessary details.

Sincerely,

Signed - dep. with E. C. Hilliard
